

The Governor's Office of Disability Affairs Presents: 2016 Inclusive Schools Art Contest

Contest Theme:

“Inclusion Matters: A Better World For All”

To bring greater awareness of the importance of inclusion in today's society, the Governor's Office of Disability Affairs (GODA) encourages you to participate in the 2016 Inclusive Art Show Contest. GODA will be accepting entries that illustrate or describe ideas related to this year's theme and accompanying definitions of inclusion of persons with disabilities. Medals and special recognition from Governor John Bel Edwards will be presented to the winners. Contestants are encouraged to use art as a means to share their vision, experiences, and talents to demonstrate this year's theme. Winning entries will be publicly displayed.

Artwork Criteria:

- All artwork entries must be framed or ready to hang.
- Submissions may be 16x20 or smaller. Any entries larger than 16x20 will be ineligible.
- Any suitable materials or a computer generated design may be utilized.
- Package artwork entries so that they are easy to carry, transport, and display.
- Place adequate postage on your mailing package. The Governor's Office of Disability Affairs will NOT pay for postage due on parcels.

Contest Rules:

- Open to residents of Louisiana
- No group artwork will be accepted.
- All entries must be received by May 17, 2016
- Winning art work may be used as prize material, distributed, and not returned.
- Artwork not selected as winners may be picked up. Those not picked up by December 1, 2016 will remain the property of the Governor's Office of Disability Affairs.
- By submitting your entry, you give the Governor's Office of Disability Affairs permission to use your art in support of the contest theme.
- Registration form must be typed or printed legibly in ink, signed, and attached to the back of the entry. DO NOT STAPLE to artwork.
