WHEREAS, pursuant to La. R.S. 1:55(A)(1) and (B)(1)(a), Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 23, 2023, is a legal holiday and a day of rest in the State of Louisiana, observed by the departments of the State;

WHEREAS, Louisiana Revised Statute 1:55(B)(3) empowers the governor to authorize the observance by the departments of the State of other holidays and half-holidays by executive proclamation;

WHEREAS, when the Friday after Thanksgiving Day is declared a holiday by the governor, pursuant to La. R.S. 1:55(B)(3), such holiday is designated as Acadian Day to commemorate “the arrival in Louisiana of the Acadian people from the French colony Acadia following the ceding of that colony to England in 1713 and in recognition of the fact that much of the early economic and political development of Louisiana is directly attributable to the industry of the Acadian people, through cultivation of land, utilization of Louisiana’s natural resources, and the interest of the Acadian people in political self-determination and American democracy;” and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the State of Louisiana and the officers and employees of the departments of the State will benefit from an additional legal holiday during a time period when families traditionally gather together to remember their blessings and promote family values.

NOW THEREFORE I, JOHN BEL EDWARDS, Governor of the State of Louisiana, by virtue of the authority vested by the Constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana, do hereby order and direct as follows:

SECTION 1: Friday, November 24, 2023, is declared Acadian Day in the State of Louisiana, and it shall be observed as a day of rest.

Nonetheless, an appointing authority shall have discretion to require said officers or employees to work on Acadian Day when, in the appointing authority’s judgment, it is required for the efficient administration of a state facility, the operation of which is necessary and indispensable to the citizens of this State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand officially and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of Louisiana in the City of Baton Rouge, on this 2nd day of November, 2023.
